

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

All relevant questions on this form should be answered and any requested information attached. The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) may decide your application on the basis of the information provided on your application.

All forms are available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you are outside Australia and you are applying for a Visitor Visa – Sponsored Family stream to visit family members in Australia, and you have a family member who is eligible and willing to sponsor you.

You will need to complete and sign this form and send it back to your sponsor with all supporting documentation. Your sponsor will need to lodge it in Australia with form 1149 Application for sponsorship for sponsored family visitors.

If you:

- do not have an eligible family member who can sponsor you under this visa stream, or if you want a Visitor visa which allows multiple entry, you should use form 1419 Application for a Visitor visa – Tourist stream.
- intend to visit Australia for medical treatment you should use form 48ME Application for a Medical Treatment visa.
- intend to study in Australia for more than 3 months you should apply for a student visa. Please contact the nearest Australian Visa Office or office of the department for information on student visa applications, including the correct application form.
- intend to visit Australia for a short business trip you should use form 1415 Application for a Visitor visa – Business Visitor stream.

Each applicant, including dependent children, must apply on their own form. You must complete all questions in all sections. Failure to answer any question completely and accurately may result in the application being refused, or the visa may be cancelled at a later date.

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programmes. In relation to this application, if you or a member of your family unit:

- provide, or have provided in a previous application, fraudulent documents or false or misleading information (knowingly or not); and/or
- fail to satisfy, or have failed to satisfy in a previous application, the Minister of your or their identity;

this visa application may be refused and you, and any members of your family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time, as set out in migration legislation.

If documents are found to be fraudulent or information to be incorrect after the grant of a visa, the visa may subsequently be cancelled.

Visa validity

This visa generally allows stays of up to 3 months in Australia, although a stay of up to 12 months can be granted. However, the visa period is determined on a case by case basis and may be less than the period you requested.

Conditions for a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream

Visitors to Australia must be willing and able to abide by the conditions listed below while in Australia. If you are unwilling or unable to abide by these conditions you should not apply for a visa. If you do not abide by these conditions, your visa may be cancelled or you may be subject to other penalties. If you have any questions or concerns about the conditions, you should ask for more information from an Australian Visa Office or office of the department in Australia.

If you are granted a visa, carefully check the details and conditions on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa.

If you have any concerns or questions about the requirements or limitations, you should contact the office that granted that visa. You should not assume that any changes to your immigration status can be made while in Australia.

Visa conditions

Visa condition 8101

You must NOT work in Australia.

Visa condition 8201

You must NOT study for more than 3 months while in Australia

Visa condition 8503

No further stay.

The effect of the 8503 'No Further Stay' condition is that it will not be possible for you to apply to remain in Australia beyond the authorised period of stay of your visa. It is particularly important, if your visit to Australia is to attend a specific event, that you organise your travel so that you can attend these events within your authorised period of stay as you will not be able to extend your period of stay in Australia.

Visa condition 8531

You must NOT stay in Australia after your visa expires.

Sponsor

A sponsored family visitor must have an eligible sponsor who will guarantee their stay and lawful departure from Australia and who may be requested to arrange for the lodgement of a security bond.

To avoid your sponsor incurring penalties, you MUST leave Australia before the expiry of your Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream.

If for ANY reason you do not depart before your Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream expires, or if you breach any of the conditions on your Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream, penalties will be imposed upon your sponsor. Any security bond lodged to support your Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream application will normally be forfeited.

If you request a waiver of the 8503 'No Further Stay' condition and this results in your remaining in Australia after your Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream expires, you will still be taken to have breached the 8531 'Must leave before visa expiry' condition, and the penalties will be imposed upon your sponsor, even if the 8503 is waived and a further visa is granted. Any security bond lodged to support your Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream application will normally be forfeited.

Who can be a sponsor?

In all cases, your sponsor must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident aged 18 years or over and settled in Australia for a reasonable period (usually 2 years).

Your sponsor must be one of the following:

- a relative (parent, child, partner, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, or 'step' equivalent of any of these);
- a relative of a member of your family unit who is also applying for a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream;
- a member of an Australian parliament (Commonwealth, state or territory);
- an authorised person representing a Commonwealth, state or territory government department or instrumentality; or
- a local government mayor.

If you and the other members of your family unit are applying for Visitor visas – Sponsored Family stream with the same sponsor, your sponsor MUST lodge all application forms, and the sponsorship form 1149 Application for sponsorship for sponsored family visitors in Australia at the same time.

'Partner' means your spouse or de facto partner (including same-sex partners).

Who cannot be a sponsor?

There are no provisions for fiancé(e)s, cousins, friends, in-laws or New Zealand citizens to sponsor.

If your sponsor has already provided sponsorship for another relative, and that other relative has been granted a Sponsored Family Visitor (subclass 679) or a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream (subclass 600), and that visa is still in effect, then your sponsor will not normally be eligible to sponsor you until the other relative has departed Australia and complied with all visa conditions, or until their visa has expired.

If your sponsor has already provided a sponsorship for another relative, and that other relative has breached a condition of that visa, for example, they did not depart Australia before the expiry of their visa, then your sponsor will not be eligible to provide further sponsorship in this visa class for a period of 5 years.

The only exception is where the visa condition that the other relative breached was condition 8531 (must leave before visa expiry) and your sponsor is able to satisfy the department that they breached this condition due to circumstances that:

- were beyond the visa holder's control; and
- arose after their arrival in Australia.

If your sponsor is found to be not eligible after your visa application has been lodged, then your application will normally be refused, on the basis that the sponsorship cannot be approved.

Security bond

Your sponsor may be asked to arrange for the lodgement of a security bond in support of your Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream application. The amount of the security bond is determined on a case by case basis by the delegated overseas officer and is generally between AUD5,000 and AUD15,000 per person.

It should be noted, however, under the Migration Act 1958 the decision to request a security bond is at the discretion of the delegated officer. Therefore, depending on the circumstances of the individual case, the delegated officer may ask for a security bond of any amount that they see as appropriate. The purpose of the security bond is to give the decision-maker assessing your application additional assurance that you will comply with all visa conditions and that you will leave Australia on or before the expiry of your Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream.

If the delegated officer determines that a security bond needs to be lodged in support of your application, your sponsor will be sent details of how and where to lodge the security bond. The time limit for lodging the security bond is 35 days. Once the bond has been lodged, the decision-maker will be notified, and will be able to finalise the processing of your application.

If a security bond is requested and not lodged, your application will normally be refused.

If a security bond is lodged, and you are granted a Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream, and you breach any visa conditions, in particular if you do not leave Australia before the expiry of your Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream, normally the security bond will be forfeited.

Visa Application Charge

Refer to Part L – Payment details of this form to calculate the correct charge and make payment.

Refer to www.immi.gov.au/fees-charges for a complete and current list of applicable fees and charges.

Fees and charges may be subject to change at any time and this may increase the cost of a visa application.

Generally, Visa Application Charges are reviewed on 1 July each year, and the exchange rates used to calculate the amount payable in a foreign country are updated on 1 January and 1 July each year.

If you do not pay the full Visa Application Charge amount, your visa application will not be valid.

Charges are generally not refundable, even if the application is withdrawn or refused.

Methods of payment

Payment or evidence of payment must accompany your application.

Please check the How to apply information to find out how and where you need to lodge the application before you choose your payment method.

Note: Personal and travellers' cheques are not accepted.

For application lodged, or payments made, in Australia you can pay by:

- credit card;
- Australia Post money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection;
- bank cheque or international money order:
 - drawn on a bank with representation in Australia; and
 - in Australian dollars (AUD); and
 - made payable to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection; or
- debit card (only if paying in person in Australia).

For more information about accepted methods of payment, see the department's website www.immi.gov.au/fees-charges

How to apply

- All Visitor visa – Sponsored Family stream applications must be lodged in Australia.
- Complete and sign form 1418. False or misleading information may lead to refusal or cancellation of your visa, or penalties while in Australia. You may arrange for another person to help you complete the application form, but you must sign it. If you have been assisted in completing the application form, you should only sign the declaration(s) if the information in it is true and correct.
- You must tell the department where you intend to live while your application is being dealt with. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.
- Send the completed and signed form(s) for you and your family members included in the sponsorship, payment or evidence of payment and all supporting documentation, including a certified copy of each applicant's passport, to your sponsor in Australia
- Your sponsor should lodge all applications, together with a completed form 1149 Application for sponsorship for sponsored family visitors at one of the processing centres in Australia according to the address of your sponsor at the time of lodgement.

- Your application should be lodged at the correct address for this visa application. More information about Visitor (Sponsored Family Stream) visas and lodgement addresses is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/visas/pages/600.aspx. Please read the information under 'How to apply' for the correct lodgement address for this application.
- The decision-maker may require you to undergo medical testing or x-ray examinations.
- If the decision-maker determines that a security bond is required, your sponsor will be contacted and will be given details of how to lodge the security bond.

Health requirements

All applicants must meet Australia's health requirements. You may be required to undergo a chest x-ray and medical examination in order to meet the criteria for the grant of a subclass 600 visa.

Please follow any directions given by the visa processing officer as to medical or x-ray examinations that may be required.

Additional information regarding the health requirement for entry into Australia is available on the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/health-requirements/health-exam.htm

Health insurance requirements

Medical treatment in Australia can be very expensive. It is recommended that you take out health insurance for your period of stay in Australia. You will not be covered by Australia's national health scheme, unless you are covered by a reciprocal health care agreement.

If you are 75 years of age or over

You may be asked to provide evidence with your application that you have health insurance to cover your stay in Australia. More information about health insurance is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/health-requirements/health-exam.htm

Vaccinations

If it is your intention to enrol your children in an Australian school or childcare centre (crèche or preschool) during your visit to Australia, you are strongly encouraged to carry certification of your child's vaccination status. Certification may be sought at time of enrolment.

Vaccination is recommended against polio, tetanus, measles, mumps, rubella, diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough), Haemophilus influenzae hypo (Hib) and Hepatitis B.

Note: Vaccination against rubella is also recommended for women of child bearing age.

Passport information

Most visa applicants will be required to hold a valid passport before they can be granted a visa. It is strongly recommended that the passport be valid for at least 6 months.

If you change your passport after you have been granted the visa you must notify the nearest Australian Visa Office or office of the department.

If you do not provide us with the details of any new or additional passport you use to travel to Australia, you may experience significant delays at the airport and may be denied permission to board your plane.

Please keep a copy of the Visa Grant Notification in a safe place for your reference.

Residential address

You must provide the address of where you intend to live during the period that your application is being considered. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Change of address

If you change your residential address for more than 14 days while your application is being processed, you must tell the department your new address and how long you will be there. The department will send communication about your application to the latest address for correspondence you have provided.

Modified Non-Return Rate data

The Modified Non-Return Rate (MNRR) is a calculation of the people who arrive on a Visitor visa, but do not depart before their visa expires, other than those who are granted Skilled, Visitor or Student visas in Australia.

The MNRR is used as an indicator of Visitor visa compliance, and may be considered by decision makers to determine the level of scrutiny to apply to the application.

If you are from a country with a high MNRR it is in your interests to provide additional documentation as indicated on page 17, supporting your application.

MNRR data can be found at www.immi.gov.au/media/statistics/visitor.htm

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Sponsors of applicants for Visitor visas – Sponsored Family stream are exempt from the requirements to be registered as a migration agent in order to assist application in relation to Visitor visas – Sponsored Family stream.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Office of the MARA website www.mara.gov.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.immi.gov.au

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Appointing a migration agent/exempt person

To appoint a migration agent/exempt person you should complete Part K – Options for receiving written communications.

Your migration agent/exempt person should complete form 956 Advice by a migration agent/exempt person of providing immigration assistance.

Form 956 is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Options for receiving written communications

If you do not appoint a migration agent/exempt person you may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on your behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To appoint an authorised recipient you should complete:

- Part K – Options for receiving written communications; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the department's website

www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.
